

Fraud: It Happens.

How you can stop it in its Tracks.

An Annual Seminar with learnings to expand your fraud knowledge.

Handwriting & Statement Analysis
June 21, 2018

Security & Loss Prevention
Association of Western Mass

The Security & Loss Prevention Association of Western Massachusetts and The Connecticut Loss Prevention Association are co-hosting a one-day training seminar on Thursday, June 21, 2018 at the Big-Y Conference Center in Springfield. Jim Streeter and Wes Clark, both experts in their respective fields of handwriting analysis and statement analysis will be presenting. This all-day session will be a great resource for law enforcement, fraud investigators, security officers, and human resource employees who interview suspect employees or potential candidates for hire.

Lunch will be provided. A registration form will be distributed soon with additional details. This session is open to all law enforcement agencies, retail and financial institutions. Please feel free to distribute outside of our association.

Where: Big Y Foods Corporate Office
2145 Roosevelt Ave, Springfield MA 01102

When: 6/21/2018 9AM-3PM | Lunch Provided | Doors open at 8AM for social hour

How Much: $60 for Private Sector | $30 for all Law Enforcement

Fee Includes: Training Conference, Morning Refreshments for Social Hour, Lunch, Raffle Prizes

How to Pay: Please make check payable to "Security & Loss Prevention Association" and remit to:
C. Melin Menas
Freedom Credit Union
PO Box 3009, Springfield, MA 01101

Jim Streeter
Owner and President of North East Forensics, LLC

Wesley Clark
President of LIES, LLC

