

Monthly Meeting News

Date: Wednesday, September 26, 2012
Location: Cabela's, Scarborough, ME
Attendance: 10 Members, 1 Guest
Subjects Covered: Review of Lobster Bake event, upcoming Chapter elections, advertising on ASIS-Maine

11:30 - Attendees arrived and meeting began

Topics:

- * Pictures and commentary regarding the Lobster Bake, it was deemed a successful endeavor which should re-occur every two to three years. The Chapter benefited financially from the attendance and sponsorships. Future events will warrant further discussion regarding giving sponsors free access to the event for a number of their representatives based on their donation level.
- *Discussions took place regarding upcoming meeting planning, both in obtaining space to hold the meetings as well as identifying presenters.
- *The chapter has decided to move forward with offering advertising space on the Chapter website to help fund chapter activities. Discussion regarding pricing and the need to draft a contract delineating the agreement between the chapter and prospective advertisers took place. It was also decided that only security related advertising would be considered for the site.
- *Discussion took place regarding Chapter Elections for the board. Currently the Vice Chairman and Secretary are willing to continue to serve in their positions, the Chairman position will be open and the chapter is accepting nominations for the position. The current officers will check in with the Treasurer to determine if he is willing to retain his position.
- *Members that attended the annual ASIS Conference, recounted their experience and thoughts on the event.
- *Welcomed our guest, Peter Cote of Cabela's and thanked him for providing the meeting space. Mr. Cote also provided us with a description of his position and experience in the industry.
- * New memberships and the pros to becoming a member were discussed by Brad.

13:30 - Meeting adjourned
